

Title: Coille an Fhàsaich
Author: Donald MacKillop
Edited and translated: Anne Lorne Gillies
Publisher: Brigh Productions
Published: 3 Oct 2008
Binding: Paperback

Poetry and a unique, richly historical autobiographical account of life in the island of Berneray eight decades ago. In Gaelic with English translations throughout. Also music of his songs.

Size: 210mm x 190mm
Weight: 680gms
Pages: 237
 146 Photos, mainly colour
ISBN 9780956087706
Price: £12.99

Long awaited collection!
The poems and memoirs
of Donald MacKillop,
author of the much-loved
songs
'Ròsan' and
'Coille an Fhàsaich'

Available now
 from Brigh Productions

"To those who know the bard only through some of his best-known songs – such as 'Coille an Fhàsaich' or 'Ròsan' – this book will be a delightful revelation. As he ranges from traditional song to literary free form through love, nostalgia, sorrow, humour and philosophical reflection, there is something for every one in this important collection." Bill Innes

Brigh

Brigh Productions
 Haplund House
 33 Stewarton Road
 Dunlop
 Ayrshire
 KA3 4DQ

Web: www.brigh.co.uk
 Contact: Kevin Bree
 Tel: 01560484500
 email: info@brigh.co.uk

Partners: Anne Lorne Gillies MA, PhD, Dr hc, PGCE, LRAM and Kevin Bree BA